Vesting in Official Assignee of sums to credit of certain client accounts.

(2) Where a licensee files a petition for arrangement but does not vest the licensee's estate in the Official Assignee, the creditors who are clients of the licensee, or a portion of those creditors (being at least three-fifths in number) may apply in a summary manner to a judge of the High Court for the time being exercising jurisdiction in bankruptcy matters for an order vesting in the Official Assignee the sum to the credit of every client account kept by the licensee, and the Court may, if it thinks it proper to do so and the Official Assignee consents, make such an order, which shall have effect accordingly.

then, notwithstanding any statutory provision or rule of law to the contrary, the sum to the credit of the client account or, where the licensee has kept 2 or more client accounts, the total of the sums to the credit of those accounts, shall be divisible proportionately amongst the clients of the licensee according to the respective sums received by the licensee in the course of the licensee's business on behalf of the licensee's clients and remaining due by the licensee to the clients.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), for the purposes of this section, where a refund of a deposit is due from a licensee, the amount due shall be deemed to have been received by the licensee in the course of the licensee's business on behalf of the person who made the deposit.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not operate to deprive a person referred to in that subsection of any right to require a contract of sale or letting to be duly completed.

the Authority may, by notice in writing given to the licensee or former licensee, as the case may be, require the licensee or former licensee, as the case may be, or any other person in possession or control of such documents, to produce the documents, to a person appointed by the Authority for the purpose, at a time and place specified by the Authority in the notice.

(3) Where the Authority takes possession of documents produced under this section—

(a) it shall serve on the person by whom the documents were produced, a notice giving particulars of the documents and the date of taking possession thereof, and

(b) it may make such enquiries as may be reasonably necessary to ascertain the person or persons entitled to the possession or custody of such documents, or any of them, and may thereafter deal with such documents, or any of them, in accordance with the directions of such person or persons so entitled.

(4) Within 14 days from the service of a notice under subsection (3) on a person, the person may apply in a summary manner to the Circuit Court for an order directing the Authority to return the documents taken by the Authority to him or her or to such other person or persons as the applicant may require and the Court may make the order applied for or such other order as it thinks fit.

- (a) to carry out the investigation (non-licensee), and
- (b) to submit to it an investigation report (non-licensee) following the completion of the investigation (non-licensee).

(3) The Authority may appoint more than one inspector to carry out an investigation (non-licensee) but, in any such case, the investigation report (non-licensee) concerned shall be prepared jointly by the inspectors so appointed and the definition of “investigation report (non-licensee)” in subsection (8) and the other provisions of this section shall, with all necessary modifications, be construed accordingly.

(4) The provisions of section 66 shall apply to an investigation (non-licensee) as they apply to an investigation as if—

- (a) any reference in that section to an investigation were a reference to an investigation (non-licensee), and
- (b) any reference to a licensee (howsoever expressed) in that section were a reference to the person to whom the investigation (non-licensee) relates, and with all other necessary modifications.

(5) Where an inspector has completed an investigation (non-licensee), the inspector shall, as soon as is practicable after having considered, in so far as they are relevant to the investigation (non-licensee), any information or records, books or accounts (whether kept in manual form or otherwise) or other documents provided to the inspector pursuant to any requirement under section 66 as read with subsection (4), any statement or admission made by any person pursuant to any requirement under that section as so read, any submissions made and any evidence presented (whether at an oral hearing referred to in section 66(15) or otherwise), prepare an investigation report (non-licensee) and submit it to the Authority.

(6) Where the Authority has considered an investigation report (non-licensee) submitted to it pursuant to subsection (5), the Authority—

- (a) if it is satisfied that a contravention of section 28(1) by the person to whom the investigation (non-licensee) relates has occurred or is occurring, shall, without prejudice to the generality of section 94, forthwith give a copy of the investigation report (non-licensee) to the Garda Síochána and the Minister together with a notice in writing of its decision under this paragraph and the reasons for the decision,
- (b) if it is not satisfied that a contravention of section 28(1) by the person to whom the investigation (non-licensee) relates has occurred or is occurring but is of the opinion that a further investigation (non-licensee) of that person is warranted, shall cause the further investigation (non-licensee) to be carried out pursuant to its powers under this section,
- (c) if it is not satisfied that a contravention of section 28(1) by the person to whom the investigation (non-licensee) relates has occurred or is occurring and is not of the opinion that a further investigation (non-licensee) of the person is warranted, shall, as soon as is practicable, give notice in writing to that person to the effect that—
 - (i) it is not satisfied that a contravention of section 28(1) by the person has occurred or is occurring,
 - (ii) it is not of the opinion that a further investigation (non-licensee) of the person is warranted, and
 - (iii) subparagraphs (i) and (ii) do not preclude any future investigation (non-licensee) being carried out in relation to the person should it once again be suspected that a contravention of section 28(1) by the person has occurred or is occurring.

(7) Where the Authority is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (6)(a), it may, on notice to the person to whom the investigation report (non-licensee) concerned relates, seek an injunction in the High Court requiring the person to cease the activities which such report and the notice concerned referred to in that subsection have identified as having contravened or contravening section 28(1).

(8) In this section—

“investigation (non-licensee)” means an investigation under subsection (1);

“investigation report (non-licensee)”, in relation to an investigation (non-licensee), means a report in writing prepared, following the completion of the investigation (non-licensee), by the inspector appointed to carry out the investigation (non-licensee)—

- (a) stating that the inspector—
 - (i) is satisfied that the person to whom the report relates has contravened or is contravening section 28(1), or
 - (ii) is not so satisfied,

as appropriate,
- (b) if paragraph (a)(i) is applicable, stating the grounds on which the inspector is so satisfied,
- (c) if paragraph (a)(ii) is applicable, stating—
 - (i) the basis on which the inspector is not so satisfied, and
 - (ii) the inspector’s opinion, in view of such basis, on whether or not a further investigation (non-licensee) of the person is warranted and, if warranted, the inspector’s opinion on the principal matters to which the further investigation (non-licensee) should relate.

Certain provisions to be void.

90.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), any provision (whether express or implied) in an agreement in respect of the sale or letting of land whereby the purchaser or tenant, as the case may be, is required to pay or otherwise bear the cost of the licensee’s fees or expenses in respect of the sale or letting, as the case may be, shall be void, and any moneys paid pursuant to such a provision shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect the liability of a person to pay fees or expenses to a licensee in respect of the acquisition of any land where the licensee has been retained by the person to acquire such land and does not also act, in respect of such acquisition, on behalf of the person from whom the land is acquired.

Publication of sanctions, etc.

91.—(1) The Authority shall publish particulars, in such form and manner and for such period as it thinks fit, of any—

- (a) conviction of a person for a contravention of section 28(1),
- (b) decision of the Authority refusing to renew a licence,
- (c) suspension under section 64(2) of a licence, and

- (d) imposition of a major sanction on a licensee pursuant to a decision confirmed or given under section 70(3) or 71(2).
- (2) The Authority may publish particulars, in such form and manner and for such period as it thinks fit, of any—
 - (a) imposition of a minor sanction on a licensee pursuant to a decision under section 68(4)(a),
 - (b) imposition of a minor sanction on a licensee pursuant to a decision given under section 70(3), or
 - (c) imposition of a minor sanction on a licensee pursuant to a determination under paragraph 24(1)(a) or (c) of Schedule 5.

92.—(1) A notice to be given to a person by the Authority or the Appeal Board under this Act shall be given to the person in one of the following ways: Receipt of notice.

- (a) by delivering it to the person;
- (b) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or carries on business;
- (c) by sending it by prepaid registered post or by any other form of recorded delivery service in an envelope addressed to the person at that address;
- (d) where the person has given an address for service of notices, by leaving it at the address for such service or sending it by prepaid registered post or by any other form of recorded delivery service in an envelope addressed to the person at that address; or
- (e) where the Authority or the Appeal Board considers that notice should be given immediately, by sending it by means of electronic mail or facsimile machine, to a device or facility for the reception of electronic mail or facsimiles located at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or carries on business or, if an address for the service of notices has been provided by the person, that address.

(2) A notice to be given by a person to the Authority or the Appeal Board under this Act shall be given to the Authority or the Appeal Board, as the case may be, in one of the following ways:

- (a) by delivering it during normal office hours to the office of the Authority or the Appeal Board, as the case may be, and leaving it with a person who is apparently its employee;
- (b) by sending it by prepaid registered post or by any form of recorded delivery service in an envelope addressed to the Authority or the Appeal Board, as the case may be, at its office; or
- (c) by such other means as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 95 for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) A notice given under subsection (1) is deemed to have been received by the person—

- (a) in the case of prepaid registered post, or other recorded delivery, on the third working day after the day on which it was so sent,
- (b) in the case of electronic mail, when the sender's facility for the reception of electronic mail generates a message confirming the receipt of the electronic mail,
- (c) in the case of a facsimile machine, when the sender's facsimile machine generates a message confirming the successful transmission of the total number of pages of the notice.

(4) Documents or information which are required by or under this Act to be made or submitted to the Authority or the Appeal Board within a specified period shall, if the office of the Authority or Appeal Board, as the case may be, is closed on the last day of the period, be regarded as having been received before the expiration of the period if received on the next following day on which the office is open.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a company is deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office and every other body corporate or unincorporated body to be so resident at its principal place of business.

93.—Section 4 (as amended by section 5 of the Data Protection (Amendment) Act 2003) of the Data Protection Act 1988 shall not apply to data processed by the Authority in the performance of its functions under this Act in so far as those functions relate to carrying out an investigation.

Offences —
general.

94.—(1) Any person who makes any false or misleading statement in any application or notice of appeal under this Act or in any document required thereunder or otherwise gives false or misleading information to the Authority or the Appeal Board is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a class A fine or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where a licensee is convicted of an offence under subsection (1), the court may, after having regard to the nature of the offence and the circumstances in which it was committed, order that the licence held by the licensee be revoked and that the former licensee be prohibited (which may be a permanent prohibition, a prohibition for a specified period or a prohibition subject to specified conditions) from applying for any new licence or a particular class of new licence.

(3) An order under subsection (2) shall not take effect until—

- (a) the ordinary time for bringing an appeal against the conviction concerned or the order has expired without any such appeal having been brought,
- (b) any such appeal has been withdrawn or abandoned, or
- (c) on any such appeal, the conviction or order, as the case may be, is upheld.

(4) Where—

- (a) a contravention of a provision of this Act or of regulations made under this Act is committed by a body corporate, and
- (b) the contravention is proved to have been committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, a person who was either—
 - (i) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
 - (ii) a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person is also guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished as if the person were guilty of the contravention referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (4) shall apply in respect of the acts or defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director or manager of the body corporate.

(6) Subsections (4) and (5) shall, with all necessary modifications, apply in respect of offences under this Act committed by an unincorporated body.

(7) The Authority may bring and prosecute summary proceedings for an offence under this Act (including an offence under section 28).

(8) Notwithstanding section 10(4) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851, summary proceedings for an offence under this Act to which that provision applies may be instituted—

- (a) within 12 months from the date on which the offence was committed, or
- (b) within 6 months from the date on which evidence sufficient, in the opinion of the person instituting the proceedings, to justify proceedings comes to that person's knowledge, whichever is the later, provided that no such proceedings shall be commenced later than 2 years from the date on which the offence concerned was committed.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (8)(b), a certificate signed by or on behalf of the person initiating the proceedings as to the date on which evidence referred to in that subsection came to his or her knowledge shall be evidence of that date and, in any legal proceedings, a document purporting to be a certificate under this subsection and to be so signed shall be admitted as evidence without proof of the signature of the person purporting to sign the certificate, unless the contrary is shown.

95.—(1) The Authority, with the consent of the Minister, may and, if directed by the Minister to do so and in accordance with the terms of the direction, shall, following consultation with any other person or body as the Authority thinks fit or as the Minister directs,

Regulations that may be made by Authority — general.

by regulations provide for any matter referred to in this Act as prescribed under this section and for all or any of the following:

- (a) the classes of licences which may be issued by the Authority and the conditions (if any) attaching to such classes of licences;
- (b) the procedures governing—
 - (i) the issue and renewal of licences; and
 - (ii) the surrender of licences;
- (c) the standards to be observed in the provision of property services by licensees or particular classes of licensees with particular reference to—
 - (i) the public interest;
 - (ii) the duty owed to clients and users and potential users of property services;
 - (iii) the professional and ethical conduct of licensees;
 - (iv) the confidentiality of client information; and
 - (v) conflicts of interest;
- (d) the qualifications (including levels of training, education and experience) or any other requirements (including required minimum levels of professional indemnity insurance) for the issue and renewal of licences, or particular classes of licences;
- (e) the terms on which indemnity against losses is to be available to licensees under any policy of indemnity insurance (including, in the case of licensees who are property services employers, the extent to which such indemnity covers principal officers and employees of property service employers who provide property services in their capacity as such principal officers or employees, as the case may be) and the circumstances in which the right to such indemnity is to be excluded or modified;
- (f) the records to be maintained and the information and returns to be provided to the Authority by licensees or particular classes of licensees;
- (g) the amount of the contributions to be made to the Fund in respect of applications for a licence or for the renewal of a licence, or exemptions from the payment of such amounts, or waiving, remitting or refunding such amounts (in whole or in part), in different circumstances or classes of circumstances or in different cases or classes of cases; and
- (h) the procedures for applications for grants.

(2) The Authority shall not prescribe a longer period for the purposes of subsection (6) of section 31 unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the longer period will not prejudice the financial stability of the Fund by virtue of depriving the Fund of contributions payable into it upon the renewal of licences, and
- (b) the longer period will reduce the expenses incurred by the Authority in the administration of this Act in so far as it relates to the renewal of licences but without thereby prejudicing the Authority's responsibility to control and supervise licensees.

(3) The Authority shall not prescribe an offence for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “material matter” in section 41(4) unless it is satisfied that the offence is of a kind that is so remote or insignificant in relation to the matters that would normally be taken into account to determine whether a person is a fit and proper person to provide a property service that the offence could not reasonably be regarded as being a matter of which the Authority ought to be aware.

96.—(1) The Minister may by regulations provide for any matter referred to in this Act as prescribed under this section.

Regulations that may be made by Minister — general.

(2) The Minister shall not prescribe a property service for the purposes of paragraph (p) of section 3(1) unless he or she is satisfied that the property service is of a kind that is so insignificant, or that the property service is the subject of such level of control and supervision outside the provisions of this Act, that disapplying this Act to such property service will not prejudice clients and other users and potential users of such property service.

(3) The Minister shall not prescribe an amount for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “prescribed amount” in section 77(4) unless the Minister is satisfied, after consultation with the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, that it is necessary to do so in order to—

- (a) prevent, or prevent the likelihood of, grants or instalments of grants being unduly postponed, or
- (b) ensure the financial stability of the Fund in view of the pattern of the grants (if any) which have been made.

(4) The Minister may by regulations make such incidental or consequential provision as the Minister considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of giving this Act full effect.

97.—(1) The Authority may specify the form of documents required for the purposes of this Act as the Authority thinks fit.

Power to specify form of documents.

(2) The Authority's power under subsection (1) may be exercised in such a way as to—

- (a) include in the specified form of any document referred to in that subsection a statutory declaration—
 - (i) to be made by the person completing the form, and
 - (ii) as to whether the particulars contained in the form are true and correct to the best of that person's knowledge and belief,

and

- (b) specify 2 or more forms of any document referred to in that subsection, whether as alternatives, or to provide for particular circumstances or particular cases, as the Authority thinks fit.
- (3) The form of a document specified under this section shall be—
 - (a) completed in accordance with such directions and instructions as are specified in the document,
 - (b) accompanied by such other documents as are specified in the document, and
 - (c) if the completed document is required to be provided to—
 - (i) the Authority,
 - (ii) another person on behalf of the Authority, or
 - (iii) any other person, so provided in the manner (if any) specified in the document.

Interpretation of transitional provisions.

98.—In the transitional provisions—

“Act of 1947” means the Auctioneers and House Agents Act 1947;

“final determination”, in relation to an application under section 30 referred to in section 99(1)(b) made by a person concerned for a licence to provide a property service concerned, means—

- (a) the issue under section 31(1) by the Authority of a licence to the person concerned to provide the property service concerned,
- (b) the refusal under section 31(3)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) by the Authority to issue a licence to the person concerned to provide the property service concerned,
- (c) subject to paragraph (d), the refusal under section 31(3)(g), (h) or (i) by the Authority to issue a licence to the person concerned to provide the property service concerned and the taking effect of that decision in accordance with section 76, or
- (d) if there is an appeal to the Appeal Board against a refusal referred to in paragraph (c)—
 - (i) the withdrawal of the appeal as specified in paragraph 19 of Schedule 5,
 - (ii) the confirmation of the decision of the Authority by the Appeal Board as specified in paragraph 24(1)(a) of Schedule 5,
 - (iii) the taking effect in accordance with section 76 of a new decision by the Authority as specified in paragraph 24(1)(b) of Schedule 5,

- (iv) the taking effect of the Appeal Board's determination in substitution for the decision of the Authority as specified in paragraph 24(1)(c) of Schedule 5,
 - (v) the dismissal of the appeal as specified in paragraph 25 of Schedule 5, or
 - (vi) the withdrawal of the appeal as specified in paragraph 31(2)(a) and (3) of Schedule 5,
- as applicable;

“person concerned” has the meaning given to it by section 99(1);

“property service concerned” has the meaning given to it by section 99(1);

“transitional provisions” means this section and sections 99 and 100.

99.—(1) Subject to subsection (3) and section 100, sections 28(1) and 89 and the provisions of this Act applicable to a licensee and a property service shall not apply to a person (in the transitional provisions referred to as a “person concerned”) and a property service (in the transitional provisions referred to as a “property service concerned”) provided by the person concerned if, and only if—

Application of this Act to persons who were lawfully providing property service before commencement of relevant provisions of this Act in respect of that service.

- (a) the person concerned was lawfully providing the property service concerned before the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, and
- (b) the person concerned has, before that commencement, made an application under section 30 for a licence to provide the property service concerned and there has not been a final determination of the application before that commencement.

(2) Where subsection (1) has not ceased to apply to a person concerned and a property service concerned, the statutory provisions repealed, revoked or amended by this Act (including Part IV of the Act of 1947) shall, in so far as they applied to the person concerned and the property service concerned before the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, continue to apply to the person concerned and the property service concerned as if those statutory provisions have not been so repealed, revoked or amended, as the case may be.

(3) Subject to section 100, subsection (1) shall cease to apply to a person concerned and a property service concerned immediately upon the final determination of the application under section 30 referred to in subsection (1)(b) made by the person concerned for a licence to provide the property service concerned.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Act of 1947 effected by the commencement of section 7(1), Part IV of that Act shall continue to apply to a deposit (within the meaning of section 2 of that Act) which has not been released before that commencement and, for the purposes of such application, a licence (if any) under this Act held by the depositor shall not be treated as a licence referred to in that Part.

(5) Where a licence is issued to a person concerned in respect of a property service concerned pursuant to the final determination of the application under section 30 referred to in subsection (1)(b) made by the person for that licence, the period of validity of the licence as so issued shall be deemed to start to run on the day of commencement of section 28(1) in respect of the property service concerned, and irrespective of whether the licence is issued before, on or after that commencement.

Modification of operation of section 99(1) in specified circumstances.

100.—(1) Where—

(a) a person concerned (in this subsection referred to as “the first-mentioned person concerned”)—

(i) would, but for section 99(1), be required to be licensed as a property services employer in order to continue to provide a property service concerned on and after the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, and

(ii) has, before that commencement, made an application under section 30 for a licence to provide that service as a property service employer,

and

(b) another person concerned (in this subsection referred to as “the second-mentioned person concerned”)—

(i) is a principal officer or an employee of the first-mentioned person concerned, and, in that capacity, provides the property service concerned referred to in paragraph (a)(i) on behalf of the first-mentioned person concerned,

(ii) would, but for section 99(1), be required to be licensed as a principal officer or an employee, as the case may be, in order to continue to so provide that service on and after the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, and

then, if the final determination of the application referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) is that the first-mentioned person concerned is not issued a licence to provide the property service concerned referred to in paragraph (a)(i) as a property services employer—

(i) section 99(1) shall cease to apply to the second-mentioned person concerned in so far as the second-mentioned person concerned provides that property service on behalf of the first-mentioned person concerned, in his or her capacity as a principal officer or employee, as the case may be, of the first-mentioned person concerned, and

(ii) the application referred to in paragraph (b)(iii) shall be deemed to have been withdrawn by the second-mentioned person concerned.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Authority shall not determine the application referred to in subsection (1)(b)(iii) until there has been a final determination of the application referred to in subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(3) Where—

(a) a person concerned (in this subsection referred to as “the first-mentioned person concerned”)—

(i) would, but for section 99(1), be required to be licensed as a property services employer in order to continue to provide a property service concerned on and after the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, and

(ii) has not, before that commencement, made an application under section 30 for a licence to provide that service as a property services employer,

and

(b) another person concerned (in this subsection referred to as “the second-mentioned person concerned”)—

(i) is a principal officer or an employee of the first-mentioned person concerned and, in that capacity, provides the property service concerned referred to in paragraph (a)(i) on behalf of the first-mentioned person concerned,

(ii) would, but for section 99(1), be required to be licensed as a principal officer or an employee, as the case may be, in order to continue to so provide that property service on and after the commencement of section 28(1) in respect of that property service, and

then—

(i) section 99(1) shall not apply to the second-mentioned person concerned or the property service concerned referred to in paragraph (a)(i) in so far as that second-mentioned person concerned was providing that property service, on behalf of the first-mentioned person concerned, in his or her capacity as a principal officer or employee, as the case may be, of the first-mentioned person concerned, and

(ii) the application referred to in paragraph (b)(iii) shall be deemed to have been withdrawn by the second-mentioned person concerned.

101.—The enactments specified in Schedule 8 are amended in the manner specified in that Schedule.

Consequential amendments to other enactments.

Complaints to rights commissioner

1. (1) An employee (or, in the case of an employee who has not reached the age of 18 years, the employee's parent or guardian with the consent of the employee) or, with the consent of the employee, any trade union of which the employee is a member, may present a complaint to a rights commissioner that the employee's employer has contravened section 67(5) in relation to the employee and it shall not be necessary for the employee to have at least one year's continuous service with the employer concerned in order to present such complaint.

(2) Where a complaint under subparagraph (1) is made, the rights commissioner shall—

- (a) give the parties an opportunity to be heard by the commissioner and to present to the commissioner any evidence relevant to the complaint,
- (b) give a decision in writing in relation to it, and
- (c) notify the parties of that decision.

(3) A decision of a rights commissioner under subparagraph (2) shall do one or more of the following:

- (a) declare that the complaint was or, as the case may be, was not well founded;
- (b) require the employer to take a specified course of action, which may include, in a case where the penalisation constitutes a dismissal within the meaning of section 67(12), re-instatement or re-engagement;
- (c) require the employer to pay to the employee compensation of such amount (if any) as is just and equitable having regard to all the circumstances, but not exceeding 104 weeks' remuneration in respect of the employee's employment calculated in accordance with regulations made under section 17 of the Unfair Dismissals Act 1977, and the references in clauses (b) and (c) to an employer shall be construed, in a case where ownership of the business of the employer changes after the contravention to which the complaint relates occurred, as references to the person who, by virtue of the change, becomes entitled to such ownership.

(4) Subject to subparagraph (10), a rights commissioner shall not entertain a complaint under this paragraph if it is presented to him or her after the expiration of the period of 6 months beginning on the date of the contravention to which the complaint relates.

(5) Notwithstanding subparagraph (4), a rights commissioner may entertain a complaint under this paragraph presented to him or her after the expiration of the period referred to in subparagraph (4) (but not later than 6 months after such expiration) if he or she is satisfied that the failure to present the complaint within that period was due to exceptional circumstances.

(6) A complaint shall be presented by giving notice of it in writing to a rights commissioner and the notice shall contain such particulars and be in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation.

(7) A copy of a notice under subparagraph (6) shall be given to the other party concerned by the rights commissioner.

(8) Proceedings under this paragraph before a rights commissioner shall be conducted otherwise than in public.

(9) A rights commissioner shall furnish the Labour Court with a copy of each decision given by the commissioner under subparagraph (2).

(10) Where a delay by an employee in presenting a complaint under this paragraph is due to any misrepresentation by the employer, subparagraph (4) shall be construed as if the reference to the date of the contravention were a reference to the date on which the misrepresentation came to the employee's notice.

Appeals from decisions of rights commissioner

2. (1) A party concerned may appeal to the Labour Court from a decision of a rights commissioner under paragraph 1(2) and, if the party does so, the Labour Court shall give the parties an opportunity to be heard by it and to present to it any evidence relevant to the appeal, shall make a determination in writing in relation to the appeal affirming, varying or setting aside the decision and shall communicate the determination to the parties.

(2) An appeal under this paragraph shall be initiated by the party concerned giving, within 42 days (or such greater period as the Court may determine in the particular circumstances) from the date on which the decision to which it relates was communicated to the party, a notice in writing to the Labour Court containing such particulars as are determined by the Labour Court under clauses (e) and (f) of subparagraph (4) and stating the intention of the party concerned to appeal against the decision.

(3) A copy of a notice under subparagraph (2) shall be given by the Labour Court to any other party concerned as soon as practicable after the receipt of the notice by the Labour Court.

(4) The following matters, or the procedures to be followed in relation to them, shall be determined by the Labour Court, namely:

- (b) the times and places of hearings of such appeals;
- (c) the representation of the parties to such appeals;

Paragraphs 1 and 2: supplemental provisions

3. (1) The Labour Court shall, on the hearing of any appeal referred to it under paragraph 2, have power to take evidence on oath and for that purpose may cause persons attending as witnesses at that hearing to swear an oath.

(2) The Labour Court may, by giving notice in that behalf in writing to any person, require such person to attend at such time and place as is specified in the notice and—

(a) to give evidence in relation to any matter appealed to the Labour Court under paragraph 2, or

(b) to produce any document specified in the notice relating to the matter in the person's possession or power, or both.

(3) A witness at a hearing of an appeal before the Labour Court has the same privileges and immunities as a witness before the High Court.

(4) Where a decision of a rights commissioner in relation to a complaint under this Schedule has not been carried out by the employer concerned in accordance with its terms, the time for bringing an appeal against the decision has expired and no such appeal has been brought, or, if such appeal has been brought, it has been abandoned, the employee concerned may bring the complaint before the Labour Court and the Labour Court shall, without hearing the employer concerned or any evidence (other than in relation to the matters aforesaid), make a determination to the like effect as the decision.

(5) The bringing of a complaint before the Labour Court under subparagraph (4) shall be effected by giving to the Labour Court a written notice containing such particulars (if any) as may be determined by the Labour Court.

(6) The Labour Court shall publish, in a manner it considers appropriate, particulars of any determination made by it under any of clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of subparagraph (4) of paragraph 2 (not being a determination as respects a particular appeal under that paragraph) and subparagraph (5).

(7) In proceedings under this Schedule before a rights commissioner or the Labour Court in relation to a complaint that section 67(5) has been contravened, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the employee concerned acted reasonably and in good faith in forming the opinion and making the communication concerned.

- (8) (a) If penalisation of an employee, in contravention of section 67(5), constitutes a dismissal of the employee as referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “penalisation” in section 67(14), the employee (or, in the case of an employee who has not reached the age of 18 years, the employee’s parent or guardian with the consent of the employee) may institute proceedings in respect of that dismissal under the Unfair Dismissals Acts 1977 to 2007 or to recover damages at common law for wrongful dismissal and, if the employee or his or her parent or guardian, as the case may be, does so, a complaint in relation to such dismissal may not be presented to a rights commissioner under paragraph 1(1).
- (b) If an employee (or, in the case of an employee who has not reached the age of 18 years, the employee’s parent or guardian with the consent of the employee) presents a complaint to a rights commissioner under paragraph 1(1) in respect of a dismissal referred to in clause (a), the employee or his or her parent or guardian, as the case may be, may not institute proceedings in respect of that dismissal under the Unfair Dismissals Acts 1977 to 2007 or to recover damages at common law for wrongful dismissal.

(9) There shall be included among the debts which, under section 285 of the Companies Act 1963 (as amended by section 10 of the Companies (Amendment) Act 1982 and section 134 of the Companies Act 1990) are, in the distribution of the assets of a company being wound up, to be paid in priority to all other debts, all compensation payable by virtue of a decision under paragraph 1(2)(b) or a determination under paragraph 2(1) by the company to an employee, and that Act shall have effect accordingly. Formal proof of the debts to which priority is given under this subparagraph shall not be required except in cases where it may otherwise be provided by rules made under that Act.

(10) There shall be included among the debts which, under section 81 of the Bankruptcy Act 1988 are, in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt or arranging debtor, to be paid in priority to all other debts, all compensation payable by virtue of a decision under paragraph 1(2)(b) or a determination under paragraph 2(1) by the bankrupt or arranging debtor, as the case may be, to an employee, and that Act shall have effect accordingly. Formal proof of the debts to which priority is given under this subparagraph shall not be required except in cases where it may otherwise be provided under that Act.

Enforcement of determinations of Labour Court

4. (1) If an employer fails to carry out in accordance with its terms a determination of the Labour Court in relation to a complaint under paragraph 1 within 28 days from the date on which the determination is communicated to the parties, the Circuit Court shall, on application to it in that behalf by—

- (a) the employee concerned (or, in the case of an employee who has not reached the age of 18 years, the employee’s parent or guardian with the consent of the employee), or

- (b) with the consent of the employee, any trade union of which the employee is a member, without hearing the employer or any evidence (other than in relation to the matters aforesaid), make an order directing the employer to carry out the determination in accordance with its terms.

(2) The reference in subparagraph (1) to a determination of the Labour Court is a reference to a determination in relation to which, at the expiration of the time for bringing an appeal against it, no such appeal has been brought or, if such an appeal has been brought, it has been abandoned and the references to the date on which the determination is communicated to the parties shall, in a case where such an appeal is abandoned, be read as references to the date of such abandonment.

(3) In an order under this paragraph providing for the payment of compensation, the Circuit Court may, if in all the circumstances it considers it appropriate to do so, direct the employer concerned to pay to the employee concerned interest on the compensation at the rate for the time being standing specified under section 26 of the Debtors (Ireland) Act 1840 in respect of the whole or part of the period beginning 28 days after the day on which the determination of the Labour Court is communicated to the parties and ending on the day immediately before the day on which the order of the Circuit Court is complied with.

(4) An application under this paragraph to the Circuit Court shall be made to the judge of the Circuit Court for the circuit in which the employer concerned ordinarily resides or carries on any profession, trade, business or occupation.
